Where Sex + Spirit Come Together

In the spring of 2013, I'm bringing eight couples—and a handful of adventurous singles—to Bali, for six days of sensual exploration, sexual mastery, heart-opening lessons, erotic inspiration + wild exhilaration.

Come with me...

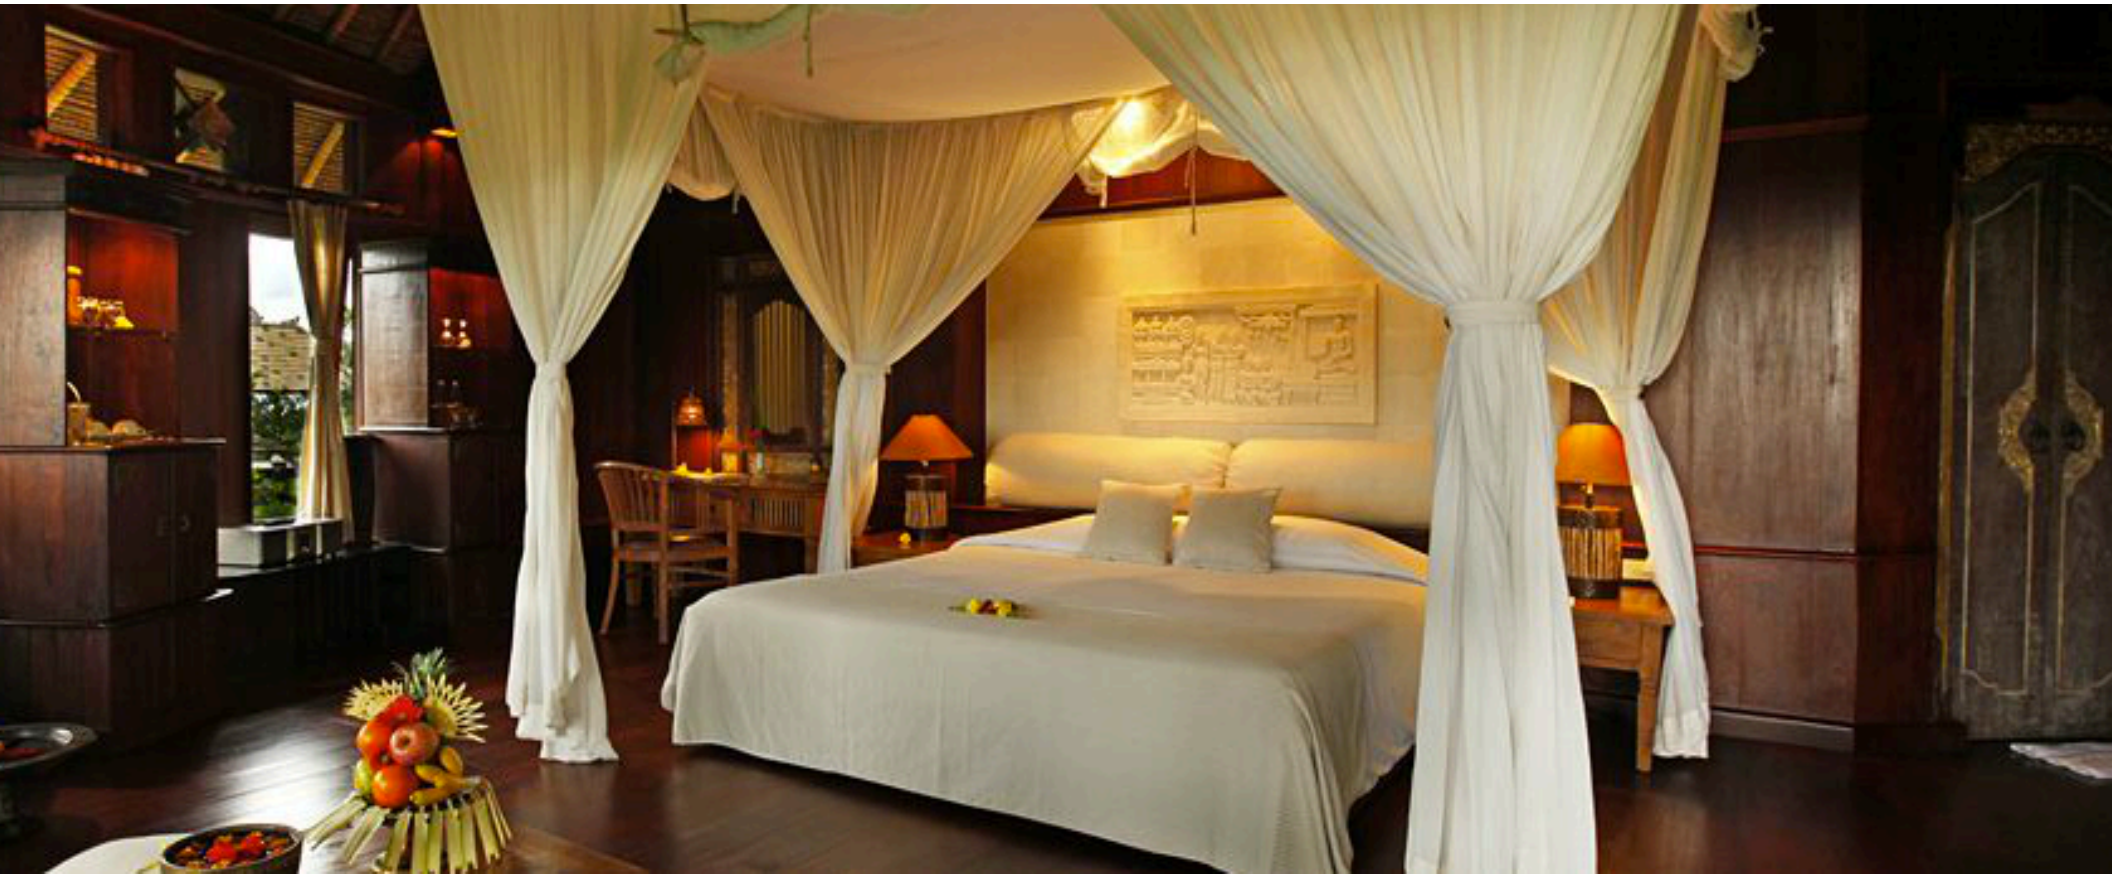

To one of the most magical, awe-inspiring places on the planet

Here's what will happen when you come:

: You'll step into a sexual sanctuary. Your Bali retreat is truly a mind, heart + hot sex immersion. You'll enjoy catered meals, yoga, meditation—and of course, scheduled sex dates, with yourself or your partner. And just what happens, when you devote three-plus hours a day to sexual play? You'll find out...

: You'll have my intuition, wisdom + full attention. In small groups + salons that meet every day, we'll expand your erotic imagination with new skills, techniques and practices. Your questions will be answered. Your life force will be stoked. You'll find the soaring intersection of spirit + sex. And stay there.

: You won't know what's next. But you'll love every moment. While you're off completing your erotic assignments, I'll be arranging luxurious surprises—like fabulous sex toys and housemade truffles—to make your unplugged adventure even more unforgettable.

: You go home—and step into your life with unbridled energy, charisma, and magnetism. That's the power of sexual energy, unleashed. Just get ready. (And warn your friends.)

A peek inside...

About Bali:

Long called the “island of the gods,” Bali is steeped in rich cultural tradition. Strong connections to nature and the cosmos create a feeling of harmony and living at one with the divine flow.

The land and energy here is very fertile. It’s the perfect place to plant potent seeds and watch them grow in your life.

Diving deep into your own natural rhythms, and your partner's (if you have one), you will open up your heart and your genitals. When you leave, you'll infuse that sensual power into everything you do.

Imbibe yourself with the magic, beauty and raw sensuality that is Bali.

And if you want to take a break from the sex...

The resort is wonderfully situated for other mind-body-soul adventures as well. Optional excursions include: jungle hiking, sunrise volcano trekking (image below!), visits to ancient temples and Balinese cooking classes.

The spa is available for massage therapies, facials, holistic rituals or body scrubs. The spa specializes in using mixtures cultivated from native plants; which you can learn about in one of the onsite workshops.

Yes. No additional cost is required. Wi-Fi is available in the reception/lounge area.

From the Sexually Enlightened

Most of my sex/intimacy clients tend to value their privacy. As do I. The bulk of the testimonials I receive are quietly anonymous.

Except Britt. She's not shy.

Post-salon/VIP weekend praise

“One of the most powerful experiences of my life. During our first dinner meeting, Kim went deeper with me than I’ve gone with anyone. She drew things out of me I didn’t know were there, let alone how to get to them. I’ve had pivotal, life-changing revelations in our time together. She’s amazing and gifted. Seeing her will alter you forever.”

- RJ, San Diego. He buys and sells territories.

“My wife and I have been happily married (mostly!) for three decades. We work at it. Despite being in a great place, Kim gave us an arsenal of tools to use for the long haul. She elevated our intimacy and sex life tenfold. We’ve seen a number of professionals in our time—she’s the best. Hands down.”

- T.T. + R.T., Boca Raton. He CEO’s things. She nurtures things.

“I was ready to leave my wife. On the brink. We decided to give it one more shot, after coming across Kim. She “feng shui-ed” our relationship, as she calls it, leaving us with an entirely new one in her wake. Her insights and support span spiritual/sexual/philosophical boundaries, synthesized into this wild little package. She’s our spiritual/sexual guru.”

~ S.K. + J.M., New York. He’s into software. She writes.

“The weekend was out-of-this world. Kim orchestrated a powerful, beautiful, heart-opening experience for us. Like a great yoga instructor, she was there to inspire, enlighten and guide, while staying in tune with us and giving slight adjustments. She held us, but let us grow in our own way. Worth the investment, many times over.”

~ B.W. + L.W., London. She models. He plays music.
